Mean square in the prime geodesic theorem

Giacomo CHERUBINI
Max Planck Institute for Mathematics

There is a strong analogy between the distribution law of closed geodesics on the modular surface and prime numbers. The main asymptotic is the same, and the remainder is related to the the zeros of the Selberg zeta function.

We present an upper bound for the mean square of the remainder. This is joint work with João Guerreiro.