Periodic points of rational functions with good reduction everywhere

Chatchawan PANRAKSA

Mahidol University International College

We discuss periodic points of rational functions with rational coefficients. A part of this discussion will be related to the Morton-Silverman uniform boundedness conjecture. In this talk, we show that the periodic points of rational functions with good reduction everywhere can be bounded independently of the degrees of the functions.